SPEED PREMIUMS.....$10,000

RULES OF THE TRACK

First—Speed contests will be governed by the Rules and Regulations of the Day District Fair Grounds Association, adopted August 6, 1874, adopted by the Nevada State Jockey Club May 27, 1875, except as to the rules already established by the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society, which stand.

Second—No entry will be considered without it is accompanied by the entrance money. All entries will be closed Monday, September 27, 1875, except for Consolation Premiums. In all races four or more must enter, three or more must start.

Third—The entrance fee will be ten per cent. on the whole amount offered.

Fourth—There will be no money paid for a walk over.

Fifth—Only first money and entrance to a horse distancing the field.

Sixth—No horse will receive more than one premium in the same speed contest.

Seventh—Owners of horses must furnish name, age, pedigree and color of all horses entered, as far as possible.

Eighth—All entries must be directed to B. H. McCLURE, Reno, Assistant Secretary of the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society. Entrances will be made by mail. Horses may be named on or before 6 P. M. of the day previous to the race.

Ninth—Any jockey or groom interfering with the rights of another jockey or groom, or other jockey or groom's horse, saddle, bridle, sulky or other property, or property in charge of another jockey or groom, although not the owner, shall be liable for the same, and shall be excluded from the privileges of the ground and premises of the Association until restored to good standing by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

Tenth—Any owner of a horse on exhibition or in competition who shall interfere with the property of another exhibitor or competitor, either directly or indirectly, thereby loses his standing and shall be excluded from the privileges of the grounds and premises of the Association until restored to good standing by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

Eleventh—"Doping" or "choking" a horse or other animal shall forfeit for life all privileges of the Society's grounds and premises.

Twelfth—No person will be allowed to ride, drive, speak or exercise an animal to the right around the speed ring, but all animals ridden, driven, or exercised or speak on the track must be in the same direction to wit, to the left, keeping the judges' stand on their left, or in the same direction in which speed contests are had during the progress of a race.

FAIR GROUNDS.

Owners of horses entered or to be entered, desiring stable accommodations on the grounds will apply to W. H. CHAMBERLAIN, Vice President of the Nevada State Agricultural, Mining and Mechanical Society.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1876.

HONEST MONEY AND HONEST MEN.

Politicians are beginning to talk about presidential candidates for 1876 and of "the great political and financial issues" associated therewith. We cannot discern any important or leading measure before the people; but questions of vast financial interest are looming up in the dim horizon. Undesirable as it may be to mix banking, moneyed and financial issues with politics, and detrimental to all industry as that amalgamation now is, the fact cannot be disguised that there are only two points worth talking about—honest money and honest men.

Money, whether of metals stamped by authority, or printed paper issued for convenience or emergency, is the life-blood of all business. And to be of real service of mankind, as representatives of commodities, it must have honest, intrinsic and unchangeable value. The entire history of the world proves this. And no nation has ever prospered without that kind of money. Every political economist believes that; every thorough student has come across it in his daily reading; every statesman knows it from history and experience. And yet we have a class of public men, identified as leaders of both great political organizations in this country, who are as stupid as mules on money and finances. Some of them are weak enough to believe there is no material difference between depreciated bank notes and specie; others are corrupt, venal and mercenary enough to prefer the former—simply because it intrudes to their personal benefit and greed.

All paper money that is not convertible into specie, whether individual, corporate or national, is subject to the manifold fluctuations of trade, to the condition of the crops, to the contingency of war, and even to revolutions of petty political parties. And if this sort of promissory money has no day of redemption, no time when its promises are to be redeemed, it lacks the most vital element of strength and confidence; there is no redeeming honor in it; no fulfillment of its public pledge; and, consequently, it is not an honest medium of exchange nor a reliable representative of value. It fluctuates to-day, it depreciates to-morrow; and its purchasing power is subject to all the ups and downs of trade; to the combinations of speculating ghouls; to the mercenary greed of over-grasping monopolists; to the blunders and mismanagement of corrupt political organizations.

Any system of cheap money, bank notes of base coin, that fluctuates in its purchasing power, always leads us astray. It deceives the capitalist, it demoralizes business, it impoverishes the toiling classes, and it paralyzes every branch of industry. Hence, the whole tendency of our present depreciated and fluctuating currency is to retard enterprise, to puzzle commercial and manufacturing calculations, to enchain agriculture, and to destroy the very nerves, sinews and loins of all industrial production. This may seem an exaggerated statement of our monetary ills to the fools of finance and the sophomores of politics; yet it is the truth, and the simple story of all our business stagnation of to-day. And we shall not get out of this national slough, this currency depression, this paralysis of trade, and this plundering of labor until we have a resumption of specie payment; until we have one kind of money for the rich and poor, for the bond-holder and the beggar, for the sailor and the ship-owner, for the capitalist and the hod-carrier. Then, with the resumption of honest dollars, and the restoration of honest men, we may anticipate better times.

A gambler in Iowa, to escape arrest, attempted to cross a river with a pocket-book between his teeth. His strength or skill not proving adequate, he was obliged to open his mouth in order to call for help, and his pocket-book, containing $1,000, went to the bottom.

NEITHER DEAD NOR SLEEPING.

In the Nevada Democrat of September 3rd, I find the following notice: In the State of California on Wednesday last after a painful and somewhat protracted illness, the Independent Party departed this life. It went to the "bome" from which no traveler returns!

While I do not doubt that the editor of the Democrat hopes and believes the above to be true, he will pardon me I trust if I question the data upon which he founds his assertion that the Independent Party is dead. That we have suffered an inglorious defeat in California is beyond question, and it seems to me it but goes to show that corruption still holds rule in the high places, but another instance of truth crushed to earth, but another example of the power of money and the Railroad ring over right and justice.

I doubt not that the editor of the Democrat can call to mind in the not long distant past, a small party of men of whom Owen Lovejoy was a member, despised and desecrated by the great parties of their time, whose numbers were so few that in no instance till 1856, did even name a candidate for any of the great offices, and then with no expectation that their candidate would be successful. I refer to the much abused Abolition party. Their teachings gave birth to the great Republican party, whose glorious achievements are too recent and too firmly impressed on our editor's mind to need further mention. Now, what the abolition party was in the cause of humanity to the freeing from serfdom of over four millions of human beings, the Independent Party will eventually be in the cause of God in freeing a depressed and down trodden people, from the thralldom of a bloated, soulless monied Oligarchy.

We are the lever of righteousness, and our principles are as fixed and unchangeable as facts of Deity.

Our work will be the freeing of the people from rulers who buy their offices with gold, the punishment of villains whether rich or poor, the destruction of parties who make pledges but to falsify them on every occasion, and many other good works too numerous to mention.

Our task is more than herculean, but we have pure hearts and clean hands and have no doubt of ultimate success.

No, sir we are not dead. We may and perhaps in our short-sightedness do deplore the fact that God in his infinite wisdom still allows the existence of so many infernal fools in our sister State, and of our own people we might pray the good Lord to open their eyes and give them the light of our undertaking, that they may turn from their evil associates in both parties, and join us in the much needed work of reformation. We are neither dead nor sleeping. INDEPENDENT.

There has been much talk among the Democracy about the hard times in the iron regions, and that it all results from want of money, but here is what a leading iron man has to say to a correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette:

"We have had enough of inflation; we have experienced its evils; we have passed through the panic it occasioned, and now we want no more of it. We prefer to run slowly for a time, or even to remain out of blast altogether for a year or so, rather than embark on the inflation sea, secure a mock and unsubstantial prosperity for a little while and then fall, involving ourselves and all dependent upon us in disaster and ruin."

EXTINGUISH KEROSENE FLAMES.—One of the most ready means is to throw a cloth of some kind over the flames, and thus stifle them; but as the cloth is not always convenient to the kitchen, where such accidents are most likely to occur, some one recommends flour as a substitute, and which it is said, promptly extinguishes the flames. It rapidly absorbs the fluid, deadens the flame, and can be readily gathered up and thrown out of doors when the fire is out.—Exchange.

The best way to extinguish kerosene flames is not to start them. Never use kerosene in kindling a fire. Until manufacturers of the article quit adulterating kerosene to the extent of ready explosiveness the stuff should not be used.—Gross Valley Union.

If dust was worth a dollar a pound, says the Revue, every man, woman and child in Austin would have a bonanza in their ears, a placer in their nostrils and a big strike in the corners of their eyes, to say nothing of the wealth they would be carrying around on the back of their necks.

A SINGULAR FACT IN REGARD TO THE SPIDER.

It is a fact that it casts its skin once every year. It forms, in one corner of the web, a thick purse, similar to that in which it used to enclose its eggs. Placing itself in the centre of its web, it begins to distend its body violently for several minutes, until it splits its skin the whole length of the back. It then gradually forces its body through the aperture, until it is entirely free from its covering. The skin retains the form of the spider, and is perfectly transparent. The insect, after this great change, remains quiet gelatinous, and is of a pale green color. In this condition it retires to the aforementioned purse, leaving the skin suspended in the web. This shelter it is not able to quit for about three or four days.

THE whole number of locomotives in the world is estimated at 50,000, of which nearly 15,000 are in the United States, and nearly 11,000 in Great Britain. The aggregate horsepower is estimated at 10,000, and all the engines in use, locomotive, marine and stationary, are supposed to foot up to 14,000 horse-power.

It's an awful undertaking to go out and spark a girl half the night in Lapland, where the nights are six months long. It takes six months forethought and much labor on the part of a young man to lay in the provisions for a single evening's courting.

"DANG IT!" remarked a Sunday-School superintendent at the breakfast-table the other morning, as he helped two half-soiled flies over the brink of his coffee-cup. The old lady shifted her spectacles to the top of her head and glared at him in astonishment.

When a Massachusetts man walked seventeen miles to see a man hung, and the prisoner was respited, the disgusted traveler sat down in a fence corner and hoarsely inquired if this country was drifting back to barbarism.

Strokes the gentleman who didn't do anything except to kill Fisk, has made a new application for pardon. He says he's tired of prison life, and thinks a change of air would do him good.

A FOOLISH young man out West, in a newspaper office, wants to know why the police are not turned out in New York and the thieves put in. That is exactly what has been done.

A Western newspaper says that the devil has reserved several choice seats for those who write communications to newspapers with a lead pencil.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Third Day.
The session of the Nevada Conference met yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, Bishop Peck in the chair. The devotional exercises were conducted by T. S. Uron. Sixteen ministers answered at roll call. Minutes of previous day read and approved. The following resolution was then taken up and after considerable discussion adopted without dissent: Resolved, That the Nevada Conference desires to retain its distinct identity and to keep its present boundaries, we hereby request our delegates to the General Conference to oppose any measures looking to the "absorption" or the extinction of the Nevada Conference. J. D. Hammond was elected delegate to the General Conference which will be held in St. Louis, commencing May 1, 1876, and Warren Nims as reserve. The following report from the Committee on Temperance was presented and adopted: The wide spread and fearful effects of intemperance present a rare field for useful work to the Christian laborer. There is not, perhaps, another immoral habit that is so extensive in its influence, and that hence demands such earnest effort for its suppression. We earnestly condemn the loose notions held in regard to temperance practices. Family wide-spread and social party drinking are the most fruitful sources whence comes this great evil, and should be emphatically condemned. We have great sympathy with the various temperance organizations in the prosecution of their great work. We pledge them our hearty support and the temperance cause in general our earnest work. The Committee on Public Morals present the following, which passed: WHEREAS, The application of Christian principles is our sole reliance, in establishing and maintaining the true standard of public morality, and

That the Committee shall have power to locate the same when $10,000 is secured as a building fund by the town or city where the seminary is located.

That we pledge, as a Conference, to raise an equal amount for an endowment fund.

That the Conference shall elect Trustees of the Seminary for the present Conference year, who may open it as a school whenever deemed expedient, provided that no debt shall be incurred.

Resolutions pertaining to the California Christian Advocate were presented, pending the discussion of which the Conference adjourned to meet on Monday morning, at the usual hour, which will undoubtedly be the closing session, at which time the appointments will be made known.

Laymen's Electoral Conference.

This body, which is composed of lay delegates from the several points in the Conference met yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of electing a lay delegate to the General Conference, and organized by electing J. Stiner President and E. C. Sessions Secretary. J. Stiner was elected delegate, with E. C. Sessions as alternate. No other business coming before this body, it adjourned.

CALENDAR OF CAUSES.—The following is a calendar of causes in the District Court, 2d District, Washoe county, Nevada, for the term commencing Monday, September 6th, 1876:

LAW CALENDAR.
H. Kimber et al, vs. Nevada Land & Mining Co., limited.
J. D. Roberts, vs. Willow Creek Gold & Silver Mining Co.
Webster & Knox, vs. E. C. Sessions.
N. Anderson, vs. H. W. Barlow
TRIAL CALENDAR.
T. McCart et al, vs. S. A. Hanlin et al.
May Cunningham, vs. Z. Bryant.
J. P. Foulks, vs. A. Frazier.
J. S. Bowker, vs. Washoe county.
Jones & Clark, vs. E. D. Lake.

ANOTHER SCHOOL.—By reference to the proceedings of the Methodist Conference it will be observed that they have decided to build a seminary somewhere in the State of Nevada, and will receive proposals from the different cities and towns in the State, for the location of it. Reno is without doubt the best place for the school, and though it has already been selected as the place for the Episcopal Female Seminary, there is room for more, and the citizens would do well to call a meeting and talk the matter over. It will be observed that the Conference pledges itself to raise $10,000 as an endowment fund, if the town which makes the best offer, gives an equal amount. The proposition is a fair one, and will no doubt create quite a rivalry amongst the different points in the State. Let Reno stir herself and be heard in the matter.

CENSUS.—The census for Washoe county being nearly complete the population is found distributed substantially as follows:

Franktown and vicinity.....	350
Washoe City and Environs.....	200
Henderson and vicinity.....	400
Orleans and vicinity.....	225
Wadsworth and Winnemucca.....	440
Verdi and vicinity.....	125
Praville and vicinity.....	375
Reno and vicinity.....	1,625
Total.....	3,900

In a few days we will be able to give the exact population, with number of dwellings, number of families, etc.

THEATRE.—This evening a talented troupe from Piper's Opera House, will give an entertainment at Dyer's Hall. G. G. Chaplin and Jean Clare Walters, assisted by an excellent stock company, can not fail to please all who attend. "Maniac Lover" and "Po-ca-hon-tas" will be the pieces presented.

ATTENTION KNIGHTS.—By order of the U. C. there will be a special convention of Amity Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A full attendance is requested as there will be business of importance to transact.
C. H. STODDARD,
K. of R. & S.

There will be no services at the Congregational church to-day, because of the absence of the Pastor, Sunday School at the usual hour.

George W. Hatch, the patentee, from Lawrence, Kansas, who has been operating his system of tanning here for some time successfully and independent of bark, manufacturing a fine article of leather under his patent of 1874, to-day exhibited to us a new Letters Patent he obtained from the United States Patent Office last month, on the use of a wild shrub Ephedra Antisyphilitica (commonly called tea plant,) used in the syphilis, which after many experiments he succeeded in utilizing under his improvements for tanning purposes.

It grows in great abundance throughout the Sierra Nevada mountains and valleys, and in Utah, Arizona and California. He exhibits a very fine quality of leather tanned by this new tanning shrub. The shrub is possessed of strong tanning properties and in his system of tanning in this country, will supplant his patented plant call Mollilotus (sweet clover) used only as a coloring matter, but possessed of no tanning properties whatever. The new tanning shrub has not only the tanning properties, but also has the required coloring matter. This is certainly a great and valuable acquisition for tanning in this State, where bark cannot be obtained, and will hence cheapen his process much in the manufacture of leather here.

Under his old patent of many years ago sole leather could not be made, but under his new patent the finest kind of sole leather can be successfully made, where all the requisite machinery is supplied, hence the braided sides can be tanned into sole leather, and clear sides into harness leather, rendering the business more profitable.

Having established the success of his patent system of 1874, in manufacturing good leather here, as our workers of leather will amply attest, the exclusive right of which for this State and all territory on the Pacific Slope, he still retains he now takes his departure for San Francisco as his future head quarters; and any person or company desiring to embark in the tanning business will do well to communicate with him there, as any establishment running legally under his improved patent system by honorable and satisfactory purchase of right, he always takes pleasure—in a fatherly way—of looking after its successful operation, by personal attention, visiting and correspondence, and further where transactions between parties are thus in harmonious and reciprocal relations, and in legal and proper form, the patentee takes great pleasure in advancing the interest of parties concerned by instituting all proper and conceivable advantages in the business, and in the way of constructing the works, putting adjunct improvements for advancing, cheapening and facilitating the work, thereby securing greater profits and greater perfection in the manufacture, and having canvassed many of the States, visiting the best establishments in the line of his profession, has become acquainted with, and selected the best constructed improvements used in such establishments. Such advantages adds much for success, especially in a country like this, destitute of tan bark.

EXCURSION TICKETS.—We gladly chronicle another mark for the Central Pacific Railroad. During the California State Fair, the Company will sell excursion tickets from Reno to Sacramento and return good from the 18th to the 27th for $17. This is a reduction of one-third from the regular rates.

M. E. CHURCH.—Love Feast this morning at 9:30; preaching by Bishop Peck at 11; followed by the ordination of Duncan; preaching at 2:30; followed by ordination of Elder, and preaching at 8:15. There will be no Sunday School for the day.

REMOVED.—The Misses Vance are now located on Virginia street, next door to the photograph gallery. They will receive at their dressmaking establishment and make to order in the latest styles, all kinds of plain and fancy sewing.

SELLING OFF AT COST.—Mrs. McNeely offers her entire stock of goods for sale, at cost, for cash. The ladies of Reno and vicinity will do well to call early and secure bargains, which will be had for cash.

John Sunderland has just returned from San Francisco with the largest and best selected stock of boots and shoes ever brought to Reno. He has goods to suit all prices and all people. He has a fine assortment of children's school shoes, which give more satisfaction than any shoes ever brought to this town. He is selling boots and shoes at panic prices. Call at his store and examine for yourself. He has also on hand and for sale, a fine assortment of shoemaker's findings, which he offers to the trade at a small advance over San Francisco prices.

ACCIDENT.—Another one at the fume. Yesterday afternoon as Andrew Saunders was throwing some wood out of the dry chute a stick came along and struck him on the legs, just around his ankles, completely fracturing his left foot and a portion of that leg, and also bruising his right one considerably. He was brought to Reno, and is now receiving good medical treatment.
